Principal Financial Counselor 6/2019 to Present

Senior Financial Counselor 06/2000 to 6/2019

 CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™

The program is administered by the Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. Those with the CFP® designation have demonstrated competency in all areas of finance related to financial planning. Candidates complete studies on over 100 topics, including stocks, bonds, taxes, insurance, retirement planning and estate planning. In addition to passing the CFP certification exam, candidates must also complete qualifying work experience and agree to adhere to the CFP Board's code of ethics and professional responsibility and financial planning standards.

Item 3 - Disciplinary Information

There are no legal or disciplinary items applicable to a client's or prospective client's evaluation of Ms. Arnold. Registered investment advisers are required to disclose all material facts regarding any legal or disciplinary events that would be material to your evaluation of each supervised person providing investment advice.

Item 4 - Other Business Activities

Ms. Arnold is a Registered Representative of Weston Securities Corporation ("WSC"), a licensed broker-dealer and sister company to the Advisor and a wholly-owned subsidiary of Washington Trust Bancorp, Inc. In addition, Ms. Arnold is the President of The Park Insurance Agency, Inc. ("Park"), a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Advisor.

WSC acts as an introducing broker-dealer for the placement of securities for certain mutual funds, life and variable annuities, and limited partnerships. In addition, Park is an insurance agency that facilitates the placement of fixed annuities and life insurance policies. The Advisor may recommend or manage client investments in such products and as such, Ms. Arnold is eligible to receive compensation on commissions and/or service fees ("Trailers"), and insurance commissions for products and services offered by WSC and Park, respectively.

Ms. Arnold also receives from the Advisor a fixed annual salary, and an annual bonus based, in part, on the performance of the Advisor and its parent company. In addition, Ms. Arnold receives compensation from the Advisor based on a portion of client-paid financial planning fees, tax preparation fees and investment advisory fees derived from the value of assets held in managed accounts.

The Advisor has policies and procedures in place to ensure that the products and services recommended by Ms. Arnold are in the best interest of the client and based on the individual needs and objectives of the client rather than any compensation that may be received. Although, the payment of compensation creates a conflict of interest, the client is not under any obligation to engage Ms. Arnold or any other employee of the Advisor, or its Related Companies, and the client has sole discretion to accept or reject the recommendations made.

Employees of the Advisor may invest in their own personal accounts. As such, the personnel may buy or sell securities also recommended to clients. To deal with any conflicts of interest, the Advisor has adopted a Code of Ethics and Statement for Insider Trading. The Code of Ethics contains provisions reasonably necessary to deter misconduct, conflicts of interest and to detect any trading violations. The Advisor has in place an Insider Trading Statement which bars trading on material non-public information. A summary of the Code of Ethics is located in the Advisor's Brochure and the full Code of Ethics will be provided upon request.

Item 5 - Additional Compensation

Ms. Arnold does not receive compensation from any outside entity other than as disclosed above in "Other Business Activities."

Item 6 - Supervision

Ms. Arnold's investment advisory activities are supervised by Mark T. Kelly; Senior Vice President, Managing Director and Principal Financial Counselor of the Advisor. Mr. Kelly monitors the investment advice provided to clients by Ms. Arnold through routine communications with Ms. Arnold. In addition, Mr. Kelly meets regularly with Ms. Arnold to discuss business goals and objectives. Further, Mr. Kelly may periodically participate in client meetings and may also sample various communications provided to clients.

If you should have any questions regarding the supervision or the activities performed by Ms. Arnold; Mark T. Kelly; Senior Vice President, Managing Director and Principal Financial Counselor, can be reached at mtkelly@westonfinancial.net or at 781-328-6737.

Every employee has a responsibility for knowing and following the Advisor's policies and procedures. Every person in a supervisory role is also responsible for those individuals under his/her supervision. Supervision is evidenced by periodic meetings with the supervising principal and the supervised person as well as independent annual reviews by the Compliance Department. Nicole M. Tremblay, Esq.; Senior Vice President and Chief Compliance Officer (the "CCO"), has the overall responsibility for monitoring and testing compliance with the Firm's policies and procedures. Possible violations of these policies or procedures will be documented and reported to the appropriate department manager for remedial action. Repeated violations, or violations that the CCO deems to be of serious nature, will be reported by the CCO directly to the President, or a similarly designated officer, and/or the Advisor's Board of Directors.

Nicholas holds the Certified Financial Planner or CFP® designation. The program is administered by the Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. Those with the CFP® designation have demonstrated competency in all areas of finance related to financial planning. Candidates complete studies on over 100 topics, including stocks, bonds, taxes, insurance, retirement planning and estate planning. In addition to passing the CFP certification exam, candidates must also complete qualifying work experience and agree to adhere to the CFP Board's code of ethics and professional responsibility and financial planning standards.

² MSPFP

Nicholas holds a Master of Science Degree in Personal Financial Planning or MSPFP. The Master of Science Degree in Personal Financial Planning is designed for individuals who are interested in pursuing the CFP® Certification while also earning a graduate degree. This one-of-a-kind program utilizes industry-leading study materials, but in an entirely new way. Rather than exam preparation, the MS curriculum focuses on practical application. MS students learn via group discussions, writing assignments, and case study projects. This hands-on approach provides students with a deeper understanding of the subject matter and unique real-world insights.

3 MPAS™

Nicholas holds the Master Planner Advanced Studies™ designation from the College for Financial Planning®. The MPAS™ is a Master of Science degree awarded to individuals who complete the College's Master of Science degree with a major in personal financial planning. Students pursuing this degree program must complete courses totaling 36 to 43 semester credits in personal financial planning subject matter. Course content includes both research-based study coursework and real-world case studies. Completion of assignments, research, papers and projects are required in order to earn this degree. In order to maintain the MPAS™ designation, individuals must complete 40 hours of continuing education every two years.

4 APMA™

Nicholas holds an Accredited Portfolio Management Advisor™ or APMA™ designation. Individuals who hold the AMPA® designation have completed a course of study encompassing client assessment and suitability, risk/return, investment objectives, bond and equity portfolios, modern portfolio theory and investor psychology. Students have hands-on practice in analyzing investment policy statements, building portfolios, and making asset allocation decisions including sell, hold, and buy decisions within a client's portfolio. The program is designed for 80-100 hours of self-study. The program is self-paced and must be completed within one year from enrollment. Additionally, individuals must pass an end-of-course examination that tests their ability to synthesize complex concepts and apply theoretical concepts to real-life situations. All designees have agreed to adhere to Standards of Professional Conduct and are subject to a disciplinary process. Designees renew their designation every two years by completing 16 hours of continuing education, reaffirming adherence to the Standards of Professional Conduct and complying with self-disclosure requirements.

5 AWMA™

Nicholas holds the Accredited Wealth Management Advisor™ or AWMA™ designation. Individuals who hold the AWMA™ designation have completed a course of study encompassing wealth strategies, equity-based compensation plans, tax reduction alternatives, and asset protection alternatives. Additionally, individuals must pass an end-of-course examination that tests their ability to synthesize complex concepts and apply theoretical concepts to real-life situations.

6 CRPC™

Nicholas holds the Chartered Retirement Planning Counselor™ or CRPC™ designation. Individuals who hold the CRPC™ designation have completed a course of study encompassing pre-and post-retirement needs, asset management, estate planning and the entire retirement planning process using models and techniques from real client situations. The program is designed for approximately 120-150 hours of self-study. The program is self-paced and must be completed within one year from enrollment.

7 CSRIC®

Nicholas holds the Chartered SRI Counselor™ or CSRIC® designation. Individuals who hold the CSRIC® designation have completed a course of study encompassing sustainable investing, shareholder advocacy, community investing, corporate responsibility, the fiduciary standard, as well as environmental, social, and governance (ESG) factors. The program is designed for 80-100 hours of self-study. The program is self-paced and must be completed within one year from enrollment. Individuals are required to pass an online, timed and proctored end-of-course examination at a pre-approved testing center with a 70% score or higher. The examination tests the individual's ability to relate complex concepts and apply theoretical concepts to real-life situations. After successful completion of the end-of-course examination, individuals apply for authorization to use the designation. The application includes Adherence to Standards of Professional Conduct: Integrity, Objectivity, Competency, Confidentiality, Professionalism, Self-Disclosure and Adherence to Terms and Conditions.

Item 3 - Disciplinary Information

There are no legal or disciplinary items applicable to a client's or prospective client's evaluation of Mr. Rossi. Registered investment advisers are required to disclose all material facts regarding any legal or disciplinary events that would be material to your evaluation of each supervised person providing investment advice.

Item 4 - Other Business Activities

Mr. Rossi is a Registered Representative of Weston Securities Corporation ("WSC"), a licensed broker-dealer and sister company to the Advisor and a wholly-owned subsidiary of Washington Trust Bancorp, Inc. In addition, Mr. Rossi is an insurance agent with The Park Insurance Agency, Inc. ("Park"), a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Advisor.

WSC acts as an introducing broker-dealer for the placement of securities for certain mutual funds, life and variable annuities, and limited partnerships. In addition, Park is an insurance agency that facilitates the placement of fixed annuities and life insurance policies. The Advisor may recommend or manage client investments in such products. Mr. Rossi receives from the Advisor a fixed annual salary, and an annual bonus based, in part, on the corporate performance of the Advisor and its parent company. Further, he is eligible to receive compensation pursuant to the Wealth Management Referral Incentive Plan which relates to business development activities on new clients.

The Advisor has policies and procedures in place to ensure that the products and services recommended by Mr. Rossi are in the best interest of the client and based on the individual needs and objectives of the client rather than any compensation that may be received. Although, the payment of compensation creates a conflict of interest, the client is not under any obligation to engage Mr. Rossi or any other employee of the Advisor, or its Related Companies, and the client has sole discretion to accept or reject the recommendations made.

The Advisor has policies and procedures in place to ensure that the products recommended by Mr. Rossi are based on the individual needs and objectives of the client rather than on any compensation that may be received. Employees of the Advisor may invest in their own personal accounts. As such, the personnel may buy or sell securities also recommended to clients. To deal with any conflicts of interest, the Advisor has adopted a Code of Ethics and Statement for Insider Trading. The Code of Ethics contains provisions reasonably necessary to deter misconduct, conflicts of interest and to detect any trading violations. The Advisor has in place an Insider Trading Statement which bars trading on material non-public information. A summary of the Code of Ethics is located in the Advisor's Brochure and the full Code of Ethics will be provided upon request.

Item 5 - Additional Compensation

Mr. Rossi does not receive compensation from any outside entity other than as disclosed above in "Other Business Activities."

Item 6 - Supervision

Mr. Rossi's investment advisory activities are supervised by Mark T. Kelly; Senior Vice President, Managing Director and Principal Financial Counselor of the Advisor. Mr. Kelly monitors the investment advice provided to clients by Mr. Rossi through routine communications with him. In addition, Mr. Kelly meets regularly with Mr. Rossi to discuss business goals and objectives. Further, Mr. Kelly may periodically participate in client meetings and may also sample various communications provided to clients.

If you should have any questions regarding the supervision or the activities performed by Mr. Rossi; Mark T. Kelly; Senior Vice President, Managing Director and Principal Financial Counselor , can be reached at mtkelly@westonfinancial.net or at 781-328-6737.

Every employee has a responsibility for knowing and following the Advisor's policies and procedures. Every person in a supervisory role is also responsible for those individuals under his/her supervision. Supervision is evidenced by periodic meetings with the supervising principal and the supervised person as well as independent annual reviews by the Compliance Department. Nicole M. Tremblay, Esq.; Senior Vice President and Chief Compliance Officer (the "CCO"), has the overall responsibility for monitoring and testing compliance with the Firm's policies and procedures. Possible violations of these policies or procedures will be documented and reported to the appropriate department manager for remedial action. Repeated violations, or violations that the CCO deems to be of serious nature, will be reported by the CCO directly to the President, or a similarly designated officer, and/or the Advisor's Board of Directors.
